1st South African National Conference on Violence

15 - 17 August 2016

Birchwood Hotel & O R Tambo Conference Centre

The 1st SA National Conference on Violence: Mobilising Science, Community and Policy for Prevention will bring together researchers, interventionists, community agencies, and policy makers to focus on the science, community partnerships and policy formulations required for significant violence reduction and peace promotion in SA.

Standard Stand: The exhibition will be based on a compulsory shell scheme laid out upon a 3 x 3 meter grid. A basic stand is supplied with a table, two chairs, walls, fascia board (with company name), double fluorescent light fitting, and a power point. Corner stands will have two sides open. Each wall is made up of three panels, supported within an aluminum frame. If a company contracts for two stands, no dividing wall will be erected, but there will be two lights and two plugs. The venue will be carpeted.

IMPORTANT EXHIBITION INFORMATION

Each 3 x 3 m stand will receive complimentary passes; these are for those people that will be working at your stand. These passes will give them full access to the conference, including sessions and social functions.
